Instructions for making a claim for correction

Any person not content with this decision may apply for correction with Customs with a written claim for correction. The Customs Attorney can make a claim for correction on behalf of the State.

Correction claim period

The time limit for lodging a claim for correction is 30 days from the receipt of the decision. The deadline for the Customs Attorney is 30 days from the date when the decision was made.

When the decision is sent by post together with an acknowledgement of receipt, it is regarded that the applicant has been notified of the decision on the date stated in the acknowledgement of receipt. A decision sent by post as an ordinary letter is regarded to have been served within seven days from the sending date, unless proven otherwise.

As for verifiable electronic service, the service of the decision shall be considered effected when the decision has been retrieved from the server, database or other file designated by Customs. As for ordinary electronic service, the service of the decision shall be considered effected on the third day from the sending of the message, unless proven otherwise.

Submitting a claim for correction

The claim for correction must be sent to Customs within the prescribed time limit. The documents can be sent by post or courier on the sender's own responsibility. The claim for correction can also be submitted via the online services of Finnish Customs. The claim for correction must arrive no later than on the final day of the prescribed time period before office closing time. Customs offices close at 4.15 p.m.

Contents and signing of the claim for correction

The claim for correction must contain the following:

- the name and place of domicile of the appellant
- the postal address and telephone number for any notifications to the appellant concerning the handling of the matter
- decision appealed against
- the matters in the decision which are appealed against and the changes demanded
- the grounds for demanding a change in the decision.

The appellant or their legal representative or agent must sign the claim for correction. If the appellant's right of action is used by a legal representative or agent, or if the claim for correction is written by another person, the claim must also state their name and municipality of residence.

Enclosures to the claim for correction

The following must be enclosed with the claim for correction:

- the original or a copy of this decision;
- a certificate indicating the date when the appellant was notified of the decision, or some other account on the time of commencement of the appeal period
- the documents to which the appellant refers in order to support the claim, if such documents have not previously been delivered to the authorities.

The agent of the appellant, excluding an agent who is a lawyer or a legal aid counsel, is to enclose a power of attorney with the claim.
