1 Introduction

This document contains the user guide of the TARIC Consultation.

The purpose of this document is to describe functionalities of the TARIC Consultation module. It is web based UI, which provides:

- Goods tree;
- Calculation;
- Browsing codes
- Information

These functionalities can be used with buttons on home page.

Home page is available from every page by clicking on Tulli logo in header.

The module is available in the following required languages: English, Finnish and Swedish.

20.9.2018

2 Goods tree

The goods nomenclature code list is available as an expandable tree, filtered according to chosen simulation date and trade direction. It is possible to search goods code or part of its description or to browse tree by expanding chosen rows:

The tree can be searched by date, trade direction, commodity code or description, by clicking on button Search after part of code or part of description is written into textbox. Displayed result can be expanded in the same way as original list of sections.

Expanding and collapsing of a row can be done by clicking anywhere on the row. Declarable goods items are marked with white arrow on a blue background. Clicking on a declarable goods item opens a new tab with detail information.

On a row there are up to 4 icons available:

1. Notes
2. Open this node in a new window
3. Pdf with printed tariff
4. Expand All.

First icon displays all notes for selected node and its parents (e.g. note to section, note to chapter etc.). Second icon opens a new window with prepared URL, which can be bookmarked or copied for quick search of desired node. Third icon allows download of a generated PDF file with printed tariff for selected node (with its subtree). The last icon expands whole subtree.

4 Browsing codes

Browsing codes covers following areas: additional codes, certificates, meursing, countries, preferences and goods.

Almost all pages (except Meursing) in this section keep very similar design: search criteria at the top of the page and list of returned items at the bottom. Each row is clickable to display detail information in a new tab. In the country browsing there are also country groups displayed, which can be clicked on to display all their members.
